

Terrific Trees: All About Seeds Post Field Trip Assessment

DIRECTIONS: Use the words in the Word Bank to label the seed below. Use each word only once. Then answer the questions below.

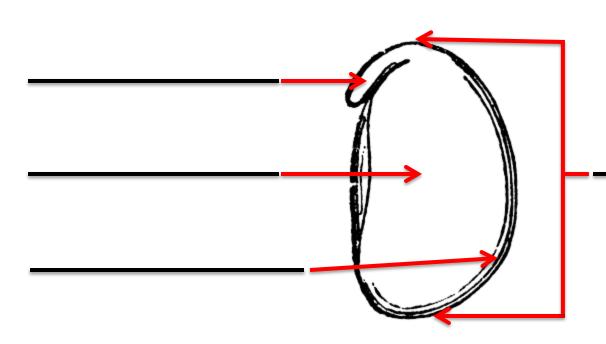

NGSS 2-LS2-1&2

WORD BANK

seed coat seed

cotyledon

embryo

What does a seed need in order to grow?	NGSS 2-LS2-1

Terrific Trees: All About Seeds Post Field Trip Assessment

How do seeds from your yard end up miles away?	NGSS 2-LS2-2
How do trees help animals?	NGSS 2-LS2-2
How do animals help trees?	NGSS 2-LS2-2

Terrific Trees: All About Seeds Post Field Trip Assessment

All About Seeds - Rubric

10	8	6	SCORE
The topic is clear and concise as the student informs or explains, using relevant and correct supporting facts.	The topic is clear but the student might stray from informing or explaining. The student uses relevant supporting facts.	The student struggles with informing or explaining the topic OR the topic is unclear. Supporting facts are weak or missing
Student produces all complete sentences, mixing simple and compound. There are 0 grammar mistakes in verb tense or noun/pronoun choice.	Student produces mostly complete sentences and mixes simple and compound. There are 1-3 grammar mistakes in verb tense and/or noun/pronoun choice.	The student struggles with writing complete sentences and/or using a variety of simple and compound sentences. There are more than 3 grammar errors in verb tense and/or noun/pronoun choice.
Student uses correct capitalization and uses correct end punctuation in sentences. The vocabulary words reviewed in the lesson are spelled correctly.	The student mostly uses correct capitalization and end punctuation with only 1-3 errors. The student uses only one vocabulary word and/or has 1 spelling error.	The student struggles using correct capitalization. There is a lack of (correct) end punctuation. They lack vocabulary words and/or have more than 3 spelling errors.
The student correctly labels the parts of a seed. The student clearly identifies that a seed needs (1) sunlight, (2) water, (3) soil, and (4) space to grow.	The student labels the parts of the seed with only 1 mistake. The student identified that a seed needs at least sunlight and water to grow.	The student struggles identifying the parts of the seed with more than I mistake. The student is unable to identify that a seed needs at least sunlight and water to grow.
The student is able to	The student is able to correctly	The student struggles to correctly correctly identify more than 2 ways in which seeds are dispersed, more than 2 ways in which trees help animals and more than 2 ways in which animals help trees.	identify 2 ways in which seeds are dispersed, 2 ways in which trees help animals, and 2 ways in which animals help trees though these ways might be unclear or vague at times.	identify ways in which seeds are dispersed, how trees help animals, and how animals help trees. Their answers may be incomplete, incorrect, or irrelevant.
	The topic is clear and concise as the student informs or explains, using relevant and correct supporting facts. Student produces all complete sentences, mixing simple and compound. There are 0 grammar mistakes in verb tense or noun/pronoun choice. Student uses correct capitalization and uses correct end punctuation in sentences. The vocabulary words reviewed in the lesson are spelled correctly. The student correctly labels the parts of a seed. The student clearly identifies that a seed needs (1) sunlight, (2) water, (3) soil, and (4) space to grow. The student is able to correctly identify more than 2 ways in which seeds are dispersed, more than 2 ways in which trees help animals and more than 2 ways in	The topic is clear and concise as the student informs or explains, using relevant and correct supporting facts. Student produces all complete sentences, mixing simple and compound. There are 0 grammar mistakes in verb tense or noun/pronoun choice. Student uses correct capitalization and uses correct end punctuation in sentences. The vocabulary words reviewed in the lesson are spelled correctly. The student correctly labels the parts of a seed. The student clearly identifies that a seed needs (1) sunlight, (2) water, (3) soil, and (4) space to grow. The student is able to correctly identify more than 2 ways in which seeds are dispersed, more than 2 ways in which trees help animals and more than 2 ways in which trees help animals and more than 2 ways in which trees help animals and more than 2 ways in which trees ways might be unclear or vague at	The topic is clear and concise as the student informs or explains, using relevant and correct supporting facts. Student produces all complete sentences, mixing simple and compound. There are D grammar mistakes in verb tense or noun/pronoun choice. Student uses correct capitalization and uses correct end punctuation in sentences. The vocabulary words reviewed in the lesson are spelled correctly. The student correctly labels the parts of a seed. The student is able to correctly identify more than 2 ways in which seeds are dispersed, more than 2 ways in which trees help animals and more treatment informing or explaining the topic OR the topic is unclear. Student struggles with informing or explaining the topic OR the topic is unclear. Supporting facts. Student struggles with writing complete sentences and/or using complete sentences and/or usin